Sheweth:

1. That your petition made the invention entitled Eye Rinse Remedy Solution, which is an improvement of patent No.(Canadian) 12 99107.
2. That your petitioner verily believes that he is entitled to a patent for the said invention having regard to the provisions of the patent act.
3. Your petitioner requests that this application be treated as entitled to the rights accorded by the said act, having regard to the application of which particulars are set out and represents that the said application is the first application for improved patent by the inventor for the said invention filed in any country.
4. The claim of priority is for the use of juice from fresh grapes when mixed with water and applied to the eyes relieves the person from:
 - (a) Stress of the eyes;
 - (b) Mental stress & slight depression;
 - (c) Pain of the eyes;
 - (d) Pain from headaches;
 - (e) Pain from migraine headaches;

- (f) Pain of muscles at the back of the neck due to stress and/or arthritis of the cervical spine;
- (g) Clears the eyes of redness;
- (h) Soothes the eyes from irritation;
- (i) Soothes tired eyes.

5. The petitioner believes that this eye rinse is patentable and is pertinent for the well being of human beings. This Eye Rinse Remedy Solution is patentable as discovery for medicine which is patentable with secret ingredients, which relieves migraine headaches and relieves the eyes and as the claims of priority. The petitioner therefore claims priority for the following;

- (a) The fact remains that never before has an eye rinse been found or invented from natural ingredients such as juice from fresh grapes and pure water.
- (b) The fact remains that never before has an eye rinse remedy solution for migraine headaches and headaches been found or invented from natural ingredients such as juice from fresh grapes and pure water which works with great success.
- (c) The fact remains that never before has an eye rinse remedy solution been found or invented from natural ingredients such as juice from fresh grapes and pure water which clears the eyes from redness, tiredness and stress.
- (d) The fact remains that never before has an eye rinse remedy solution been found or invented from natural ingredients such as juice from fresh grapes and pure water which cleans stress of the eyes and mental stress and slight depression.
- (e) The fact remains that never before has a migraine headache and headache remedy worked so well nor must it be taken orally which may upset the stomach, nor may it cause bleeding of the stomach nor may it cause harmful side effects to the body;
- (f) The fact remains that the eye rinse remedy solution works better and more effectively with mixtures of one part pure water and one-half part to one part juice from fresh grapes for all claims.

(g) The fact remains that this eye rinse remedy solution may or will revolutionise eye rinse medicine and migraine headache medicine.

6. Your petitioner therefore asks that a patent may be granted to him for the said invention.
